The Elùtop ComPack Extension is the perfect choice for outdoor enthusiasts who appreciate functionality and design. This camping table impresses with its space-saving, versatile construction and an elegant tabletop in „Classic Oak" design. Made from ultra-light honeycomb panels, it combines robustness with an appealing look.

Thanks to the extendable tabletop, the length can be increased from 116 cm to an impressive 155 cm, providing more space for family and friends. The insert can also be used as a practical side table – ideal for smaller areas or additional storage space.

The foldable construction and the included carry bag make transport and storage a breeze, while the four adjustable legs allow for individual adaptation on any surface. The design is rounded off with a convenient storage net that offers additional storage space.

Features:

- Ultra-light honeycomb panel tabletop in stylish „Classic Oak" design
- Extendable tabletop can be increased from 116 cm to 155 cm
