a stylish companion in the city or while travelling. It can be comfortably carried with the adjustable shoulder strap and even serves – when unfolded – as a fluffy pillow for cosy nights.

Material

The upper side of the Bentcho is made of durable, dirt- and water-repellent micro-polyester with Bionic Finish Eco. This innovative, PFC-free technology protects the surface. The inside is made of warming polyester Sherpa fleece (280 g/m²), while the filling consists of high-quality synthetic fibre (a mix of hollow and solid fibre) that offers excellent insulation values.
