More space and convenience in your kitchen with the BALLARINI Torre frying pan without handle

The BALLARINI Torre frying pan revolutionises your kitchen organisation. Without a fixed handle, the cookware can be stacked space-savingly and stored optimally. Perfect for small kitchens or clever storage solutions.

Equipped with a durable Ceraforce® Granitium ceramic coating, the frying pan impresses with outstanding non-stick properties – perfect for healthy cooking without much fat. The coating is up to three times more durable than conventional ceramic coatings* and is made without PFAS.

The Radiant induction base ensures quick, even heat distribution and is suitable for temperatures up to 230 °C. In combination with the specially designed handle of the BALLARINI Torre series, which supports a weight of up to 10 kg, this frying pan becomes an indispensable companion in your kitchen.

Bring more order and efficiency to your kitchen – with the BALLARINI Torre frying pan without handle, which combines functionality and modern design.

*BALLARINI's internal non-stick test protocol No. 11/2023 for

BALLARINI ceramic coatings.
