The Van Cook Flat Grill Plate is the perfectly fitting grill pan for the Van Cook FFD from CADAC | Dometic. It has been specially designed for this cooking system and is ideal for versatile pan and grill dishes when camping or on holiday.

Equipped with CADAC's GreenGrill coating, the grill plate impresses with a ceramic, completely PFAS-free surface. This ensures even heat distribution, good non-stick properties and particularly easy cleaning.

Thanks to the removable handle, the grill pan can be quickly and securely placed on the pot support of your Van Cook. This allows you to start frying straight away – perfect for wok dishes, pancakes or eggs with bacon.

After cooking, the grill plate can be stored space-savingly in the included transport and storage bag. This makes it a practical and compact addition to mobile kitchen solutions.

Advantages:

- Fits CADAC Van Cook FFD
- Ceramic GreenGrill coating, PFAS-free
- Removable handle for quick placement
- Ideal for pan dishes, breakfast and wok recipes
